GENERAL INFORMATION

The thirteenth annual meeting of the Mississippi Valley Historical Association is to be held at Greencastle, Indiana, at the invitation of DePauw University. All members of the Association and others interested are cordially invited to attend.

Local Arrangements

All who expect to attend the meeting, and all those expecting to visit Tippecanoe battle ground, are requested to notify Wallace W. Carson, DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana. Prompt compliance with this request will further materially the work of the committee on local arrangements.

Meeting Place

All meetings will be held in the buildings of DePauw University. The morning and afternoon meetings will be held in Dougherty Hall of Bowman Memorial Building, while the evening meetings will be held in Meharry Hall, East College. Headquarters will be maintained in Evans Social Room of Bowman Memorial Building, and all members from outside Greencastle are requested to register as soon as practicable after their arrival.

Accommodations

DePauw University will endeavor to arrange for rooms and board for all who attend the meeting. A limited number of rooms may be had at Florence Hall for men, while the women members will be cared for as far as practicable in Rector or Mansfield Halls. Board for all will be provided at Florence Hall. The cost of board will be $.50 a meal and rooms $1.00 a day.

Hospitalities

In connection with the Presidential address on Thursday evening the DePauw University School of Music will give a short musical program. Friday noon DePauw will tender a complimentary luncheon at Florence Hall to the members of the Association. Friday at six o'clock there will be a subscription dinner for members of the Association at the Sigma Chi House, and after the program on the same evening a reception will be tendered to all members of the Association at Rector Hall. On Saturday all members of the Association who desire to go will be taken in automobiles to Lafayette, where Purdue University will entertain at luncheon at 12 o'clock, after which all members will be taken to the Tippecanoe battle ground. Enroute to Lafayette a short stop will be made at Crawfordsville, the seat of Wabash College, at the Lew Wallace Library.

Membership

Membership in the Mississippi Valley Historical Association is open to all who are interested in the history of the Mississippi Valley. The annual dues for individual members are three dollars; for library membership, four dollars; for sustaining membership, five dollars. Life membership may be secured by the payment of a fee of fifty dollars. Members receive all publications issued by the Association, including the "Mississippi Valley Historical Review," which is published quarterly.

PROGRAM

All sessions will be held in Bowman Hall unless otherwise indicated.
Persons not members of the Association are cordially invited to attend. All papers will be limited to twenty minutes, unless special arrangements have been made to the contrary.
